First Priority will be meeting in the green room during both lunches. All are welcome. We will have Austin as our guest speaker today.

Do you want to show your spirit for the big rivalry college football game this weekend? Come down to Rocket Resale and shop for apparel, in support of the Spartans or Wolverines. Wear it on Friday to show your pride!

The men's Cross Country team is on Fire! They claimed the title “2018 OK Black Conference Champions” Evan Hodson, once again, earns an individual championship title by beating the entire field! He was trailed by his teammates Brett Schlaff, Klay Grant, and Mitchell Moore earning All-Conference titles. As well as Zach Ostoin earning Honorable All Conference. Be sure to congratulate the entire team and wish them luck as they move on to Regionals next weekend!

Do you like free pizza? On Thursday October 25th, Reeths-Puffer will be hosting an event called Lunch and Learn to help YOU explore how to connect with career opportunities for YOUR future. Learn about career experiences that allow you to test drive a career through visiting local businesses. There are only 20 spots per lunch, and this is open to all grade levels. Sign up in the counseling office.

The Women's Cross Country team had a great day yesterday finishing as runner-ups at the OK Black Conference Championship. Earning All-Conference titles were Kendall Jones, Rebekah Sweany, Ari Antor, and Grace Lockhart. Raegan Lockhart and Errin Curtis finished with Honorable Mention All-Conference titles. Congratulations!
Kids Food Basket: kids food basket packs dinners for kids in our community to take home from school for kids that would otherwise spend the night hungry, kids food basket promises them a meal. This makes the kids extremely happy to know that someone took the time to decorate their bag. So take some time at lunch to decorate paper bags for kid’s food basket.

Lunch: Chili, waffle fries. Fruit & Milk